S. C. Sloan, Chairman.

Resolution Offered by S. C. Sloan.—Resolved that we tender our thanks to Bro. J. H. Longerier for the feast he has given us in his excellent preaching and good talks and that we invite him to visit us again in our associational capacities.

Report of Executive Committee.—While in session we elected Rev. J. E. Creel to work in the interest of Missions during the past year at a salary of one dollar per day for his services; said work to be done with the churches of our Association and surroundings where he might do good. We also submit Bro. Creel's report as a part of our report which will follow this report. We now recommend that a missionary be employed to work in the destitutions of our Association, and that each church donate for the support of said missionary.

J. M. James, Chairman.

J. E. Creel, Missionary.

Report on State and Domestic Missions, written in compliance with the request of the Association while convened.—The situation. Your Executive Board found the mission work in the beginning of the present Associational year any thing but encouraging. We found very little money in the treasury. We also found that as you know there had been no missionary employed the year before. Our committee took up the work expecting the churches to respond to our call. We employed Rev. J. E. Creel to visit all the churches and solicit donations which was very meager—not sufficient to carry on the work successfully. Our missionary worked every day we could pay him for and he was obliged to do something else for a living. We considered the outlook very good at the beginning but alas the churches failed to furnish the means and work languished on our hands.

Now we see no way to make the mission cause in our bounds anything like prosperous unless our Brethren and sisters will come to our assistance with their means. Dear Christain friends, the cause lies at your disposal. With your help we can take this part of the State for Christ, and the Baptist Denomination, but without your help, prayers and money both together, we can do but little. Other denominations will outstrip us and we will suffer loss. Dear Brethren and Sisters, let us appeal unto you again for help. Let some Brother or Sister appeal to every church in Sulphur Spring Association for means and send it to Bro. J. F. McNeal, our Treasurer, and take his receipt for the same, and let your executive Board put a man in the field at once. Unless you do this or something better our Baptist cause will suffer in and around old Sulphur Springs Association.

Every Baptist in Sulphur Spring Association should feel a just pride in the forward movement already inaugurated for the closing year of this century. The plan adopted by the Southern Baptist convention, a program of which will be furnished by a committee appointed for this purpose, if carried out by every church in the Association would create a lively interest in all of our departments of work, and when we wind up our next Associational year the results would be unequalled in our past history. We have nothing but words of praise for our retiring missionary, Bro. J. E. Creel. We are assured that he has been faithful in the services rendered and no doubt the result of his labors have been felt and will result in much good to the denomination in coming days.

We have every reason to be greatful to God for the abundant blessings that have come to us the past year and we should be faithful and consecrated to his service and endeavor to be, as we can, a great power for good. The future was never more promising and the demand for a broader and more extended operation than now. All we have to do is to take hold of the opportunities while they are passing by us.

J. M. James, Chairman.

Report on Education.—There is greater necessity for educating the young and rising generation than ever before. While our young have been advanced in literary knowledge, yet we believe that education in books is but an assistance to a higher development of the mind to a higher religious duty for the advancement of the cause of our Lord and Master. We believe that the home circle should be the place to commence the work by example, by daily practice and by Godly conversation before our children. We view with alarm the rapid progress of evil in our country to draw our children away from the path of rectitude and righteousness. Brethren let us pray for more education of the heart in the future than we have in the past.

J. W. Trotter, Chairman.

Report on Institute Work.—We have had two Institutes held at Mount Zion during the year. One conducted by Reys. J. G. Lowrey and F. C. David and the other by Revs. G. S. Anderson and J. G. Lowrey. We regret that many of our people and especially, our ministers have never attended an institute that they might know the real benefit of such meetings. Believing that ministerial Institute work is the most important mission work fostered by our denomination, or rather the foundation of all other missions, we recommend that Rev. G. S. Anderson be invited to hold another Institute during the next year at one of our churches, the time and place to be named by the Association; and that each minister in our Association be urged to attend said meeting, and each church be asked to donate to the support of the work. Prayfully submitted,

J. E. Creal, Chairman.

Report on Temperance — We find that the cause of intemperance is not abolished as it should be among our Baptist people, and we recommend that our people abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. Oh! may the time soon come when intemperance will be banished from our land. We would therefore urge that our Baptist brethren and sisters exert all their power to extinguish the great evil of intemperance.

J. P. Robinson and W. R. Speakman.

Report on Deceased Ministers and Deacons.—

We find that we have lost by death one minister and four deacons in the last two years, to-wit: Elder W. R. Fullmer, an ordained minister, and Brethren Wm Compton, Isaac James, Martin Roberts and T. J. Boyd who were ordained deacons, and recommend that we hold a Memorial service at nine o'clock Sunday morning in honor to their names and christian lives while they were with us.

T. J. Baily and H. A. Jacobs.

J. F. McNeal, Treasurer.

Report on Documents.—We find that Union church asks that the next session of the Association meet with her. We also find that most all the churches have had revivals and are in a live condition. We further recommend that all our churches organize Sunday Schools at once.

L. E. Ware, Chairman.

Sabbath School Report.—It is useless for your committee to urge the importance of the Sunday School in our churches. An enlightened people like our Baptist people of to day generally know that without the Sabbath School being organized in our churches we fall far short of our more enlightened churches. However, it is a deplorable fact that we have many, yea thousands of churches in the United States that have no Sabbath Schools. Our Southern Conventional Territory has about nine thousand churches without Sabbath Schools. The Sunday School work in the bounds of our Association greatly needs organizing. A Sunday School missionary to travel over our Association could work a wonderful revolution in the Sabbath School cause in our bounds. Not only would new Schools be established, but much more efficient work would be done. In like manner some colporteur work in carrying good books and planning for the Sunday School cause by this same missionary would accomplish results of untold value in the future progress of our denomination in the Sulphur Spring Association. We have been experimenting a little on this line the past year as you will learn from the report of Bro. J. E. Creel who was in the field a part of his time and who was the grand mover in organizing our Sunday School Convention, the Constitution and By-Laws of which will be printed in another place; and we recommend that the Association continue such work in our bounds, and we do hereby advise all the churches that have Sunday Schools to send delegates to each meeting of the Convention which is to be twice a year as shown by the Constitution and also that all churches organize Sunday Schools that have none.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. James, Chairman.
